

You may use this form to appeal for additional credits to complete a COCC program based on unusual or extenuating circumstances. It is not necessary to submit an academic plan developed by you and your advisor. We will determine the number of credits still needed and if we can allow additional eligibility based on the factors you present in your explanation.

Guidelines and expectations of the appeal process:

- You are expected to understand the COCC Satisfactory Academic Progress policy, the responsibilities and processes of this petition, and other COCC written policies and procedures pertinent to this appeal.
- You are expected to meet all financial obligations, payment deadlines, late fees, etc. (including tuition payments) pending this appeal decision.
- You can expect to have completed appeals reviewed by a committee within 1-2 weeks of receipt.
- You will receive notice of appeal decision, which will be mailed or emailed to student within 1 week following a decision.
- You should monitor their Bobcat Web Account for the appeal decision.
