

Portable Projector quick guide

To set up, press the power button on the back of the projector and connect HDMI cable to projector and laptop. Then press windows + p to select project settings on your laptop. Use the focus button on the remote as needed.

To access projector settings such as color and orientation, press the gear button on the remote and navigate to the projector settings on the projector using the remote. To return to HDMI input. Go to the top left of the home screen to the input option.

If the projector is black or you accidentally enter Bluetooth speaker mode you can exit by pressing the return arrow on the remote and selecting exit Bluetooth speaker mode on the projector

