

SEASON OF NONVIOLENCE BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The Season of Nonviolence honors the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Mahatma Gandhi, Cesar Chavez and Wilma Mankiller and their nonviolent work to advocate for human rights. During Black History Month, we celebrate the past and present triumphs of the Black community, while continuing our efforts to challenge oppressive systems and strive toward a more equitable future.

VIRTUAL PRESENTATIONS

MOsley WOtta

Friday, February 5

12:30 p.m. PST – Virtual Presentation

MOsley WOtta is a local spoken word artist and equal rights activist excited to share the power of words in advocating for the support and empowerment in Black and Brown lives in Central Oregon.

Arielle Estoria

Friday, February 12

12:30 p.m. PST – Virtual Presentation

Arielle Estoria is a renowned poet, author, speaker, and emcee who emphasizes the gift of each individual. Arielle uses her words and storytelling to help others unlock their gifts and find beauty in themselves.

Dr. Doug Luffborough

Tuesday, February 23

12:30 p.m. PST – Virtual Presentation

Dr. Doug Luffborough (Dr. Luff) overcame fatherlessness, homelessness, and unjust systems to be the first in his family to attend college. Chosen by his class at Northeastern University to be the commencement speaker, he thoroughly impressed one attendee in particular, President Bill Clinton. Dr. Luff went on to the University of San Diego where he received his Ph.D. in Leadership Studies.

FREE & OPEN to the public. Registration is required at: cocc.edu/seasonofnonviolence

cocc.edu/seasonofnonviolence

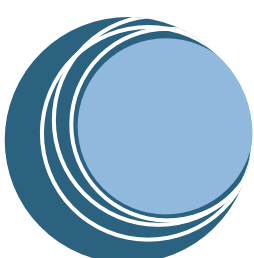

For more information contact: Blakelee Evans, Afro-Centric Program Coordinator
bevans10@cocc.edu

Presented by: COCC's Office of Diversity and Inclusion and Afro-Centric Student Program

With support from:

CENTRAL OREGON
community college
FOUNDATION
Nancy R. Chandler Visiting Scholar Program

CENTRAL OREGON
community college

♿ In advance of College events, persons needing accommodation or transportation because of a physical or mobility disability, contact Joe Viola at 541.383.7775. For accommodation because of other disability such as hearing impairment, contact Disability Services at 541.383.7583.