PARTICIPATION IN COCC SPORTS/INTRAMURALS

Dangers peculiar to activities normally engaged in include, but are not limited to: Broken bones, cuts-scrapes-sprains, bruises, concussion, heart attack.

Each participant in Club Sports/Intramural activities should realize that there are risks, hazards, and dangers inherent in such activities and in the training, preparation for and travel to and from activities.

Central Oregon Community College does not provide primary insurance for Club Sports/Intramural participants. COCC provides catastrophic insurance with an extremely high deductible. The participant is responsible for meeting the deductible.

The undersigned, and/or parent/guardian, further releases Central Oregon Community College, its employees, agents, officers and directors from all liability for personal injury resulting from the failure of the undersigned, and/or parent/guardian, or other students in the club to obey safety regulations and directions of the group leader, or resulting from the exercise of judgment by the group leader in good faith in response to emergencies and exigencies which occur on the trip; provided however, that nothing contained herein shall excuse the person assigned to be a trip leader by a member of the faculty from the responsibility to act with reasonable care for the safety of the participant during the course of the trip appropriate to the circumstances. To participate in races and once-off events, children must have a parent or guardian present with the child at all times.
